

Cancellation and Refund Policy and Procedure

1. Policy Statement and Purpose

This policy and procedure specifies the principles for setting, calculating, charging and refunding of student tuition fees and incidental fees for goods and services paid to Study Group Australia Pty Ltd (SGA) ('the Institution').

The application process of Study Group Australia Pty Ltd (SGA) commences with the applicant submitting an Application for Admission. This is assessed by suitably qualified staff to ascertain the applicant's eligibility for entry to the preferred course.

If the applicant satisfies the relevant entry criteria, a Letter of Offer is issued with the acceptance of Offer and important supportive documentation, including a list of fees due and SGA's Cancellation and Refund Policy and Procedure.

The Acceptance of Offer must be signed by the applicant (or his/her parents/guardians if the applicant is under 18 years of age) and submitted to the Institution before fees can be accepted. The Letter of Offer and Acceptance of Offer, including terms, conditions and policies, then constitute the Contract of Enrolment (the 'Contract').

The contract requires the student to confirm their acceptance of the Institution's terms and conditions, including (but not limited to) Cancellation and Refund Policy and Procedures as updated from time to time.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all enrolled students of a High School, Foundation¹, ELICOS or Higher Education course delivered and awarded by a SGA College listed in the footer of this document and staff of these colleges.

It extends also to students previously enrolled, not currently enrolled and students on program leave, where the relevant fee liability was incurred while they were enrolled or is directly related to their enrolment.

3. Definitions

Within this document the following meanings apply:

Attested/certified means to bear witness to; certify; declare to be correct, true, or genuine; declare the truth of, in words or writing, especially affirm in an official capacity: to attest the truth of a statement

Cancellation means ceasing of course enrolment and cancellation of Contract initiated by student or College¹.

Certified Users/Attestors/Authorised users means designated list of occupations and professions who can certify copies of your original documents such as JP (Justice of Peace), Notary Public, Group A and B (Gazetted) officers, Embassy and some designated government institutions/ officers which may vary by country.

¹ Note: Student or provider initiated deferment, suspension or cancellation of enrolment may affect a student's visa. For further details, refer to the SGA Deferment, Suspension, Withdrawal or Cancellation of Enrolment Policy.

Compassionate and compelling circumstances under the National Code 2018 are circumstances generally beyond the control of the student and have an impact upon the student's course progress or wellbeing. These may include, but are not limited to:

- serious illness or injury, where a medical certificate states that the student was unable to attend classes;
- bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents (where possible a death certificate should be provided);
- major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country requiring emergency travel and this has impacted on the student's studies; or
- a traumatic experience such as involvement in, or witnessing of a serious accident, witnessing or being the victim of a serious crime, and other such incidents which have impacted on the student (these cases should be supported by police or psychologists' reports).

Please note that these are only some examples of what may be considered compassionate or compelling circumstances. SGA will use its professional judgement and assess each case on its individual merits. When determining whether compassionate or compelling circumstances exist, SGA will consider documentary evidence provided to support the claim, and will keep copies of these documents in the student's file.

Domestic student means a student who is an Australian citizen (including Australian citizens with dual citizenship), or a student who is a New Zealand citizen or a student who has Permanent Resident Status.

Deferral means the postponement of commencement of course initiated by student or SGA (see also Suspension)¹.

Overseas Student: means a person (whether within or outside Australia) who holds a student visa for study in Australia as defined by the ESOS Act (may also be referred to as international student).

Principal Course means the main course of study to be undertaken by an overseas student. If the student visa has been issued for multiple courses of study, i.e. a 'package' of courses the principal course would normally be the final course of study and that leads to the highest qualification in the 'package'. Where a study visa has been issued for only one course that course is the student's principal course of study.

PRISMS means the Provider Registration and International Student Management System (PRISMS) is the system used by providers to provide information to the Secretary of DET in connection with an overseas student's course enrolment and course transfer release.

Withdrawal means ceasing a course of enrolment initiated by student – see Cancellation¹.

4. Cancellation Policy – International Students

If after commencing studies the student chooses to cancel the Contract before completion of the qualification he/she may remain liable to pay the full tuition fees and the costs incurred by the Institution in recovering any outstanding monies, including debt collection agency fees and solicitors' costs, if applicable.

All notifications of withdrawal from the Contract must be made in writing on the College's related withdrawal form as instructed on the form. The Institution will then advise the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) as the student's visa will be affected.

A student wishing to cancel his/her enrolment in order to transfer to another training provider prior to having completed at least six months of the principal course of study applicable to his/her visa, should refer to the SGA Student Transfer Policy and Procedure for further information.

5 Refund Policy – International Students

In the event of a dispute between an individual student and the Institution in relation to payment or refund of money, the College's complaints and appeals policy and procedures are in place to help resolve the dispute. Any queries relating to tuition fees and other charges payable to the Institution will initially be dealt with by the Head of College² (or delegate, e.g. Campus Bursar). If the student remains dissatisfied with the outcome, he/she may make a formal complaint. (Refer to Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure for further information).

The Contract, and the availability of the complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

Provision of the refund will be in the same currency as that in which the fees were received unless payment in that currency is impracticable (i.e. AUD). The claimant will be provided with a written statement that explains how the refund amount was calculated.
- vii) In the unlikely event that the Institution is unable to deliver the course in full, the student will be offered a refund of the unused portion of prepaid tuition fees. The refund will be paid within 14 days of the day on which the course ceased being provided. Alternatively, the student may be offered enrolment in a suitable alternative course by the Institution at no extra cost. The student has the right to choose whether he/she would prefer a refund of the unused portion of prepaid tuition fees, or to accept a place in another course. If he/she chooses a placement in another course, he/she will be asked to sign a document to indicate the acceptance for the placement. If the Institution is unable to provide a refund or place the student in a suitable alternative course, the Tuition Protection Service (TPS) will assist the student to find a suitable alternative course at no extra cost.
