Part 1 Purpose and application

1.1 Purpose

- (1) The requirements for
 - (a) all students enrolled in the University of Sydney Preparation Programs (USPPs).
 - (b) All students need to clearly understand the requirements for maintaining course progress, including compliance with the requirements of the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 (The National Code).
- (2) The circumstances when a student might be excluded because of
 - (a) Inability to complete within the allowed time limit; and
 - (b) Student misconduct or being suspended
- (3) The Policy is supported by Monitoring Course Progress Procedures 2025 (the Procedures)

1.2 Start date

- (1) This Policy commences the day after the day on which it is registered.

1.3 Application

- (1) This policy applies to students enrolled in the University of Sydney Preparation Program delivered on behalf of the University of Sydney by Navitas Australia Pty Limited trading as Taylors College Sydney (the College), and to staff of the College.

1.4 Policy is binding

- (1) Except to the extent that a contrary intention is expressed, this policy binds the University of Sydney Foundation Program Pty Limited (USFP), staff, students and affiliates.

Part 2 General principles

- (1) Student progress is monitored throughout the course against the minimum academic standards. Module teachers update the Moodle Gradebook at the end of each term and students are directed to review their progress to date. Students receive their semester report at the end of each semester and a transcript at the end of their course.
- (2) If a student is identified as potentially at risk or at risk of failing to meet satisfactory course progress requirements and to complete within the expected duration of the course, they will be supported through the College's support and intervention strategy.
- (1) A student successfully completes when they receive a grade that will satisfy entry into an award course at the University of Sydney.
- (2) Successful completion of the University of Sydney High Achievers Preparation Program requires students to be assessed as competent in all modules.

Part 3 Records Management

- (1) Records in association with this policy will be kept in accordance with the Records Management Policy and Procedures. Confidential documents related to the implementation of the policy will be maintained according to relevant privacy requirements
- (2) Records of students referred for additional academic or English language support are electronically maintained.
